Jyoti CNC Automation Ltd.

Engimach is a platform to showcase latest trends in the machine tool and its allied industries which promises to witness innovation, modern trends and proven technologies, integrating features to improve productivity and spreading awareness for development. Engimach attests to be the biggest and the best engineering technology exhibition in the region and it is growing in stages with each edition in terms of participation and level of technology exhibits. The show encourages the end users to adopt new technologies to improvement in performance standards.

Rupesh Mehta, CMD
Macpower CNC Machines Ltd., Rajkot.

ENGIMECH – 2019 was a huge opportunity for MACHINE TOOL INDUSTRIES. It acted like potential bridge for both “Who have” and “Who acquire”. It must be appreciated that the pleasant place where the exhibition was held, was not lesser then an International venue. The event was entirely managed and executed perfectly & the team was cooperative & active. Such national level events provide higher opportunity in terms of Market Presence, business orders and inquiries.

Maulik Patel, Executive Director,
Sahajanand Laser Technologies Ltd
(SLTL)

ENGIMACH is a great platform to meet new customers as well as those who are willing to or planning to enter into new business. This is the only show which surprises us every time with lot of new customers and application industries.

Dinesh Chaudhary, MD
Energy Mission Machineries (India) Pvt. Ltd.

This is our 2nd participation and in spite of economic slowdown we have received good no. of quality visitors at our stall. We have received very good potential inquiries and this is really motivating us. Engimach is very important platform for us to showcase complete range of our products.

Brijender Singh,
General Manager- Sales
ISGEC Heavy Engineering Limited:

This is our first participation and it has proved to be an excellent decision by our team. We are very happy with the type of visitor flow and quality of visitors. Results are much more on higher side than expected. We have already confirmed our participation for the next edition of ENGIMACH. We are very thankful to the team ENGIMACH for their support.

Vinit Adurkar, Regional Head - Sales
Mitutoyo South Asia Pvt Ltd

ENGIMACH is one of the best show in this country. Although there is lot of recession in the market but it has not affected the exhibition. Amazing footfall of potential customers at our stall & we are very happy with overall arrangements.

Rishi Vora, Director Technical,
Robin Precision Product Pvt Ltd

ENGIMACH has provided a very helpful B2B platform for the Engineering Sector in India. Our continuous participation in ENGIMACH has been rewarded with new business leads from time-to-time. Leading companies regularly participating in ENGIMACH, itself is a compliment.

R. Ramesh, Executive Director
Janatics India Pvt Ltd

We are a regular participant in ENGIMACH. It's a very important exhibition for us as it always help us get new customers along with an opportunity to meet all our existing customers. This exhibition is getting bigger & better year after year.
